Ownership rights of land in SEZs

† 3120. SHRI LALIT KISHORE CHATURVEDI: Will the Minister of COMMERCE AND rNDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the land to the investors and developers is being given with the ownership rights in the Special Economic Zones;

(b) whether this system has not been approved by the Parliamentary Committee also and has recommended to give land on lease;

(c) if the industry closes down after the expiry of facility period, what would be the fate of land at that time; and

(d) whether it will not encourage the land mafia indirectly?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE, MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY (SHRI JAIRAM RAMESH): (a) A Developer cannot sell land in a Special Economic Zone as per Rule 11(9) of SEZ Rules. For an area to be notified as SEZ, the Developer should have legal possession and irrevocable rights to develop the said area as SEZ. If the Developer has lease hold rights over the identified area, the lease shall be for a period of twenty years or more.

(b) The Parliamentary Committee has recommended that the land acquired by the State Government for SEZ should not be transferred to the Developer and it should be leased out.

(c) As per Rule 11 of the SEZ Rules, the land or built up area in the processing area shall be given on lease only to entrepreneurs holding a valid letter of approval but notwithstanding any condition in the lease deed, the lease rights would cease to exist in case of the expiry or cancellation of the letter of approval.

(d) Does not arise in view of (c) above.

High customs duty on luxury goods

3121. SHRI RAMDAS AGARWAL: Will the Minister of COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) whether unlike China where the import duty on luxury goods were as low as 20 per cent, the customs duty in India is upwards of 45 per cent;

(b) if so, whether Government are contemplating to lower import tariff/rationalized import duties on luxury goods so that Indians may not go abroad and buy goods which is neither good for Government that loses revenue nor for the consumer to pay more; and
